Planning the Weekend Together

Fiore:

Girls, can we meet this Saturday? I need to plan a few things for my business event, and I could really use your ideas.

Evelyn:

I can meet in the morning. I have some accounting work in the afternoon, but I can move things around if necessary.

Luz:

I can go too, but only until noon. After that, I have choir practice at the church. Could we meet at my house? It's quiet.

Mercedes:

Perfect for me. I can bring some snacks. I couldn't bake last weekend because the oven broke, but now it's working again.

Fiore:

Great! And Mercedes, could you also help me decorate a small display? You have such good taste.

Mercedes:

Of course I can. But could you send me the color palette first? I want everything to match.

Evelyn:

Fiore, could you show us the presentation you mentioned? I can check the numbers and make sure everything is clear.

Fiore:

Yes, I can do that. And Luz, could you help me with the part about community impact? You always explain those things beautifully.

Luz:

I'd love to. I can prepare some ideas tonight.

Mercedes:

So... we can meet at 9 a.m., right?

Evelyn:

Yes, I can be there on time.

Fiore:

Perfect. Thanks, sisters. I couldn't do this without you.
