"How was your Spring Break?"

Nivel: Intermedio

Enfoque gramatical: Simple past / Past continuous

Fiore: I'm so happy to see you all again. How was your Spring Break?

Mercedes: Mine was great! I finally organized my garden. I planted tomatoes, peppers, and some flowers. It was a lot of work, but I enjoyed it.

Luz: That sounds lovely. I spent most of the week at a retreat center. I meditated, read, and slept a lot. I didn't use my phone for three days.

Evelyn: Three days without your phone? I could never. My Spring Break was... interesting. I went to Miami with my coworkers.

Fiore: Interesting? That sounds suspicious. What happened?

Evelyn: Well, the beach was beautiful, but the city was super crowded. One day we tried to go to a restaurant, and we waited for almost two hours.

Mercedes: Two hours? No way.

Evelyn: Yes! But the food was amazing, so it was worth it.

Fiore: I had a quiet week. I went to Clearwater Beach and spent most of the time reading. I finished two books.

Luz: That sounds perfect.

Mercedes: Did you swim?

Fiore: A little. The water was cold, but the weather was nice.

Evelyn: I wish I had a relaxing week like you. I came back more tired than before.

Luz: That's why I always choose peaceful places.

Mercedes: Well, next year we should plan something together.

Fiore: Yes, but nothing too crazy.

Evelyn: Fine... but I'm choosing the restaurant.
